

How To Take Every Thought Captive

A close-up photograph of a man's face, looking upwards and to the right. The background is a dramatic, swirling pattern of red and orange, resembling flames or a storm. The lighting is warm and focused on the man's face.

II Corinthians 10:1-6

There's a war going on
in my head!

II Corinthians 10:1-6

STRONGHOLDS
in the MIND

II Corinthians 10:1-6

STRONGHOLDS in the MIND

verse 4 = arguments

verse 5 = against knowledge of God

verse 5 = thoughts

verse 6 = disobedience

II Corinthians 10:1-6

Powerful weapons for the battlefield of your mind

II Corinthians 10:1-6

You can win your mental war

A white dove is shown in flight at the top center of the image, set against a vibrant, ethereal background of green and yellow light. The background has a soft, glowing quality with some darker, purple and blue tones on the right side. The overall atmosphere is spiritual and uplifting.

II Corinthians 10:1-6

You can win your mental war

- Catch thoughts

A butterfly is flying over a glowing path in a forest. The path is illuminated by a bright light, and the surrounding trees are dark and shadowy. The overall scene is ethereal and spiritual.

II Corinthians 10:1-6

You can win your mental war

- Catch thoughts
- Interrupt thoughts

II Corinthians 10:1-6

You can win your mental war

- Catch thoughts
- Interrupt thoughts
- Replace thoughts

II Corinthians 10:1-6

The powerful, spiritual weapons of our “campaign”
to demolish enemy strongholds and bring every thought captive to obey Christ

A close-up photograph of a man's face, looking upwards and to the right. The background is a dramatic, swirling pattern of red and orange, resembling flames or a storm. The lighting is warm and intense, highlighting the man's features.

II Corinthians 10:1-6

There's a war going on
in my head!

How To Take Every Thought Captive

Spirit and Word

Dr. Mike Webster